	Marking
ITI 8d	14. Does your country take measures to ensure that all SALW in the possession of government armed and security forces for their own use are duly marked?  14.1 Describe the markings that are applied to government-held stocks.  SALW held by government: Governmental agency's mark, name of SALW, serial number (year of production), trademark of company. SALW held by Correction Bureau and the Immigration Bureau of the Ministry of Justice have to be kept in locked storages, and the management status of the SALW has to be made clear at all times by the books regarding the management of it. SALW held by Self Defence Forces: mainly serial number, types of weapons, and marks of its mark (Ground, Maritime, or Air), though it depends on types of SALW.  SALW held by police: mainly name, serial number and trademark, though it depends on types of SALW. SALW held by the Japan Coast Guard have to be marked by the mark of Japanese Coast Guard, name of handguns, serial numbers, trademark.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
ITI 8c	14.2 When government stocks are transferred to civilians or private companies in your territory, are such stocks marked to indicate that your government transferred the stocks?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
	Marking
ITI 8e	15. Does your country encourage manufacturers of SALW to develop measures against the removal or alteration of markings?  15.1 Details:	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
	Record keeping
PoA II.9	16. Does your country have standards and procedures related to keeping of records for all marked SALW in its territory?  16.1 What records relating to SALW are kept by the State (e.g. manufacturing, brokering, import and export licenses granted, sales to other States, SALW held by State agencies such as the armed forces etc)?  Records of all marked SALW are kept. Information of records including serial numbers, registered numbers, models, information of manufacture, numbers of manufacture, dates of manufacture and dealers of SALW are kept as necessary. The records are mainly kept in files. Explosive Control Law does not stipulate regulations on record keeping of ammunition and explosives from viewpoints of their identification and tracing.  However, it provides that manufactures and sellers of ammunition and explosives should record their types and amounts, dates of trades, and names and addresses of customers on the books, from viewpoints to manage explosives properly and prevent explosives-related disasters.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
ITI 12 a,b	16.2 How long does the government keep such records? [please detail]

SALW of police: their records are kept during their possession. SALW of the Self Defence Forces: their records are kept during their possession and after a year of its disposal. SALW of Coast Guard: their records are kept during their possession. Ordnance Manufacturing Law requires manufacturers to keep the records, but does not stipulate the duration that records should be kept. Practically, almost all manufacturers keep the records more than 10 years.
