International assistance

PoA III.6

6. Does your country wish to request assistance in developing laws, regulations or administrative procedures to exercise effective control over the export, import, transit or retransfer of SALW?

☒

6.1 What kind of assistance do you require?

The fact that Lesotho does not manufacture firearms currently even though the law allows it, it is anticipated that there may be some firearms manufacturing companies which may require export of their products and as such effective control must be exercised over export of firearms that may leave the country. As regards import, our national law does not address crucial issues such as marking.

6.2 Has your country developed a project proposal for assistance?

	International assistance
PoA III.6: 14	11. Does your country wish to request assistance in developing capacity for the destruction of weapons?	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
	11.1 What kind of assistance do you require?
	The firearms are destructed by private entities, which are normally contracted for this purpose. Sometimes the country faces budgetary constraints which make the destruction task fail as it has been agreed by SADC region countries that firearms of this nature are annually destructed on or around the 9th July. It is undoubtedly clear that the country needs to be capacitated on the efficient way of firearms destruction.

Additional information
ITI 31	26. Any further comments on PoA and ITI, including implementation challenges and opportunities? [Please detail] 1. Marking Personnel lack proper training in the field of marking of firearms (International Tracing Instrument) 2. Lack of computerized system and knowledge in order to deal with stockpile management. 3. Lack of capacity for port of entry staff to deal effectively with SALW trafficking and any other incidental matters thereto. 4. Lack of database which can be easily accessed in order to trace firearms that are reported stolen or recovered.
